OAHU CLUB WINS AGAIN AT POLO

Oahu won the polo match played yesterday afternoon on a ground near Maunaloa Seminary, Maui, by the decisive score of eleven to nothing. It was the first championship game played on Maui under the auspices of the Hawaiian Polo Association. The teams were as follows: Maui—F. F. Baldwin, George Bailey, David Fleming, Harry Copp. Oahu—Charles Judd, Ed. Damon, "Kauka" Judd, Henry Damon. The game was witnessed by a large number of spectators, including many Honoluluans. The visitors had things their own way from start to finish. The Maui team showed occasional flashes of brilliancy but were much worse mounted than their opponents, and this told the story. The game was of a most enjoyable nature throughout and was unmarred by any accident.

TWO GOOD GAMES THIS AFTERNOON

The league baseball game at Makiki this afternoon will be between the Honolulu Athletic Club and the Artillery. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.

Following are the teams and positions:

H. A. C.	Artillery.
D. Dayton	Bullock
Ed Jones	Pitcher.
C. Willis	First Base.
J. A. Thompson	Second Base.
G. Price	Third Base.
J. Williams	Shortstop.
Ant. Junius	Right Field.
H. Kaal	Center Field.
L. Hausmann	Left Field.
Substitutes—Artillery, McCoy, Bigler.

The Honolulu so far have played two games and won both, while the Soldiers have won and lost a game.

On Punahou campus at 3 o'clock a ring of old Punahou players will try conclusions with the Maile Hinas. Taking a line through the recent game between the Punahous and the Stars, the former should win today's contest.

Teams and positions:

Punahous.	Maile Hinas.
Perry	Catcher.
Castle	Pitcher.
A. Marcellino	First Base.
J. Marcellino	Second Base.
R. Cook	Third Base.
Williamson	Shortstop.
Babbitt	Left Field.
Greenwell	Center Field.
G. Cook	Right Field.

Other baseball games scheduled for the present season are:
July 27—Police vs. Mailes.
August 3—H. A. C. vs. Stars.
August 10—Artillery vs. Police.

TO BET OR NOT TO BET

To bet or not to bet, that is the question, whether 'tis nobler for a man to have the risks and perils that attend on backing horses, or go on from day to day without a thought of punting.

When we have spoofed the landlord of his rent,
The baker of his bread, and no more leaves are then forthcoming;
The butcher then the meat, the milkman, like his milk, doth soon turn sour;

The bailiff on the mat, the summons from the taxman,
And the cheek the Queer street dweller from the rent-collector takes
When he might still his living make by merely backing horses.

Would be stone broke when he might follow up the sport of kings?
But that the memory of something that we've lost,
Th' accommodating uncle from whose box to foggerly returns
Gives us the knock and makes us hang on to the oof we have.

Then pluck it down on certs that don't come off.
Thus common sense forbids us bet at all.
Yet is this reckless love of speculation 'er us.
Still must we back our fancy, try to spot a winner.
And so 'twill be until the green turf rots
And horses lose their action.

—Agellus, Indian Times.

LOOKING FORWARD.

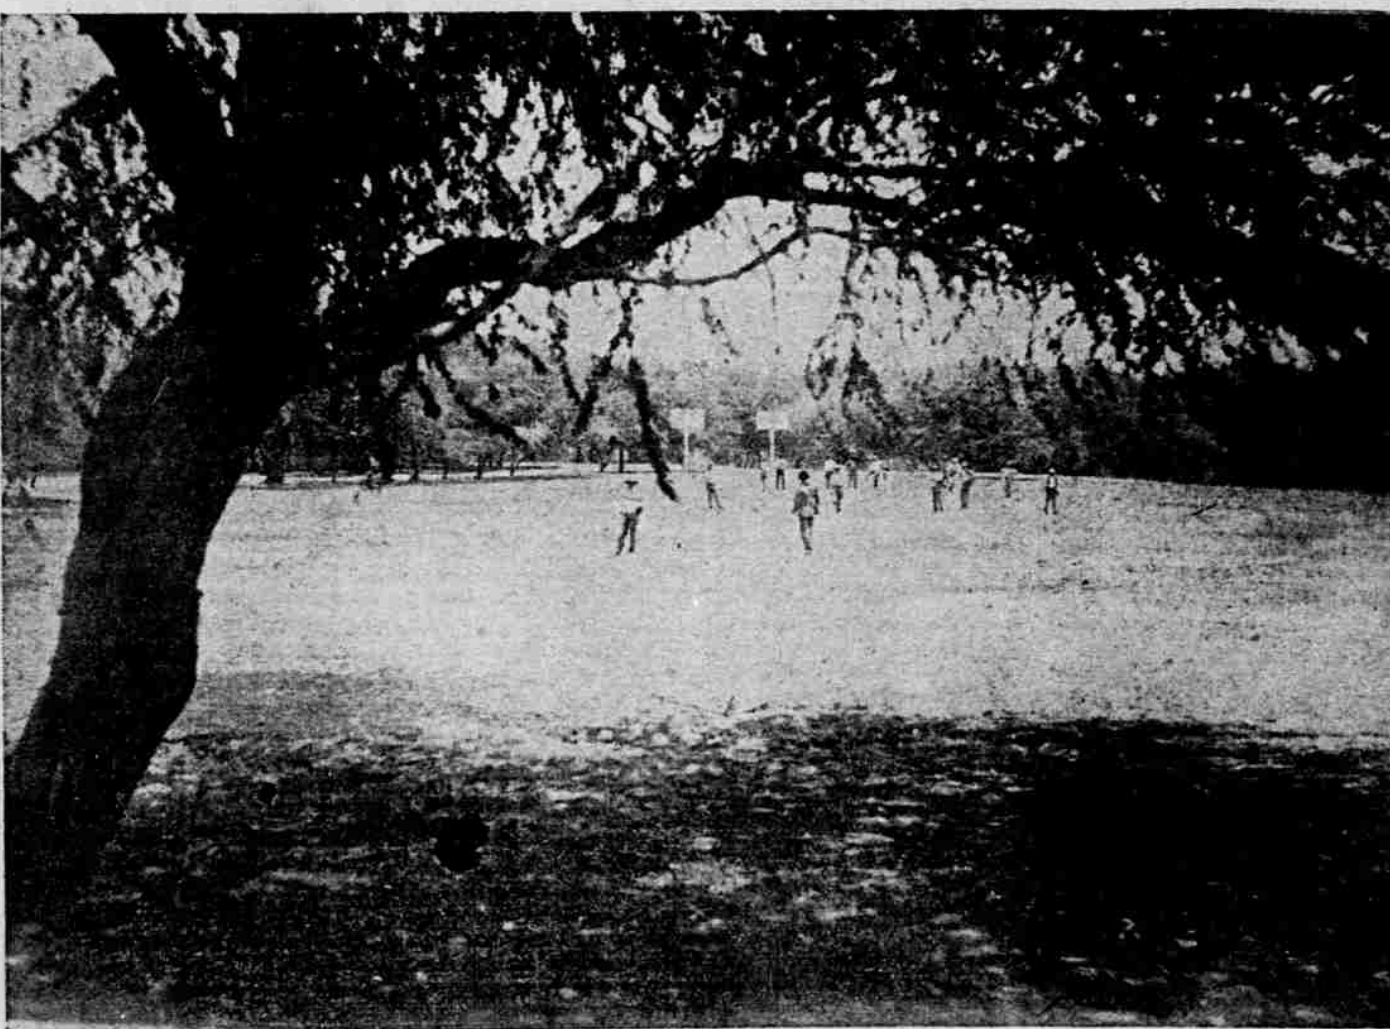

"I hope to see the time when there is no money in politics," said the ardent youth.
"Well," answered Senator Borghum, gravely, "when that time comes we'll simply have to go into some other business."

Hilo, Hawaii, June 7, 1901.
Dear Sirs—In my innocence I chased here in Hilo a jar of your PIN-MONEY PICKLES (put up by Mrs. E. G. Kidd, Richmond, Virginia).

It brought me great trouble, and of three things must occur:

1. You must stop making them.
2. I must get them at less expense.
3. I'm a ruined man.

Since my first venture I've had "jars." My family from early on cry "Pickles!" neighbors ring the bell and shout "Pickles!" relative me in expectation of "Pickles!" pickles are my Nemesis. Please, sir, quote them by the keg, by hoghead, ton or shipload, and "serve" me. Yours very truly,
